June 27 • Trio Típo

www.triotipo.com

Trio Típo plays original instrumental song with an eclectic style and flavors from around the world. The amplified classical guitars of Steve Haskin and Don Sellers are backed up by percussionist Terry Lee Storhaug, thrilling audiences with their journeys through exotic but strangely familiar realms.

July 11 • Carlos Quinche

Native American and Andean flutes, including bamboo and wood, will be played.

July 18 • Yawo

www.yawo.com

Yawo, a native of Togo, West Africa, breaks musical barriers with an explosion of afrobeat, afrofunk and reggae. His composing and arranging embraces both the traditions of the Ewe tribe and the influences of western civilization.

July 25 • Robert Bell

www.bellrobert.com

Guitar wizard Bell, Ethiopian bass phenom Johnathan Bukure and Peruvian percussion master, Chico Chavez have combined to create complex and hot rhythms from Peru, fusing the lyrical qualities of jazz guitar and soulful bass in a magical mix.

August 1 • Curtis and Loretta

www.curtisandloretta.com

The husband and wife duo perform traditional music from the British Isles as well as their own originals.

August 8 • Valeriy Saakian

Valeriy Saakian's repertoire as a keyboardist and accordionist is extensive, including pieces from his native Armenia as well as music from India, Greece, Spain, Bulgaria, Turkey, Israel, France and Cuba. He also sings in several languages including Russian and Turkish.

August 15 • Karen Lyu

www.globaljazz.net

Karen Lyu and Global Jazz perform jazz and danceable world music.

August 22 • HiBs

<http://home.comcast.net/~thedowlings/>

The HiBs, featuring Jode and Kate, perform traditional Irish music with an intimacy and depth. Kate's whistle and flute interlaces with Jode's fiddle to create a sound unique to these artists, who also founded the Center for Irish Music in 2004.

August 29 • Beloz'er'e

From the Russian Cultural Center "Russian Soul" comes Beloz'er'e (literally translated as White Lake country) founded by Elena Kallevig. This unique vocal ensemble don authentic folk costumes, promoting and preserving Russian heritage and folklore.

Hot dogs, hamburgers and drinks will be available for purchase
